WE ARE THE FIRST GENERATION THAT CAN END POVERTY.

WHY ME?

Every voice counts! Join the growing global movement asking governments to honor their MDG commitments.

WHY NOW?

Millions still live in extreme poverty yet the world has enough money, resources and technology to end poverty forever.

WHAT'S DIFFERENT?

The Millennium Development Goals are a unique opportunity to end poverty with achievable, timebound and locally defined targets.

The Partnership for Peace

The Partnership for Peace (PfP) is a programme of practical bilateral cooperation between individual Partner countries and NATO. It allows Partner countries to build up an individual relationship with NATO, choosing their own priorities for cooperation.

Based on a commitment to the democratic principles that underpin the Alliance itself, the purpose of the Partnership for Peace is to increase stability, diminish threats to peace and build strengthened security relationships between individual Partner countries and NATO, as well as among Partner countries.

What does this mean in practice?

The essence of the PfP programme is a partnership formed individually between each Partner country and NATO, tailored Video Games 2009: Who Will Win the Console War?

BY Kevin O'hannessian | Fri Jan 23, 2009 at 6:00 PM

In 2008, titles like Grand Theft Auto IV (5 million copies) and Wii Fit (4.5 million) helped the game industry reach $21 billion in sales. But with the recession, gaming may struggle to stay on top in 2009. So how will the big three ... GO >

January 23rd, 2009 by Mitch Frazier in HOWTOs

Unless you're a sysadmin you don't generally have to worry that much about getting email delivered, you just hookup your GUI email client to your external email account and you're done. But what if your system tries to deliver mail, for example from cron? Normally, this just goes to root or perhaps some designated user on your system

Over the past several years, the College has made significant strides in its e-Learning presence. To date, the College offers more than 16 fully online courses reaching more than 10,000 students annually. We are actively in the process of developing 8 more courses, several of which will be collectively delivered in the form of a certificate program.

In addition to courseware development, the e-Learning Institute has implemented a Faculty Fellowship program as an incentive for faculty members across the various disciplines to collaborate with the Institute in the conception and development of
