Tentative Agenda for the Multics Review

December 17, 1968

Tuesday, December 17, 1968

9:00 a.m. - Discussion by Licklider and Corbató on feelings, concerns, and what we would like to happen.

9:30 a.m. - Executive session of Review Committee to focus review process

10:00 a.m. - Mechanical and physical arrangements of the Multics project. Pointers to documentation, where things are,
people, equipment, jargon.

11:00 a.m. - Introduce Review Committee to the Multics programming staff.

11:15 a.m. - Motivation for Multics
Overview of benchmarks, goals, objects, progress.

12:00 p.m. - Lunch

1:00 p.m. - Motivation for system techniques in Multics. What the user sees in Multics.

4:00 p.m. - Demonstration of Multics

5:00 p.m. - Executive session of Review Committee

Wednesday, December 18, 1968

9:00 a.m. - (Note: The following three topics are of a specialized interest and could be dropped if time is pressing.)

Languages which will be available, which are planned, performance.

Controlled sharing, privacy and protection

What problems haven't been solved in Multics

12:00 p.m. - Lunch

1:00 p.m. - Performance analysis, tools, results, predictions

Future technical plans

Implications of the potential of Multics

4:30 p.m. - MAC Christmas Party

8:30 p.m. - More MAC Merriment (at Edward Fredkin's)

Thursday, December 19, 1968

9:00 a.m. - Exportability and evolvability of Multics system and ideas

Plans of the Computer Systems Research Group and future Multics benchmarks

12:00 p.m. - Lunch

1:00 p.m. - Executive session of the Review Committee