Dear Al,

Your name appears on the current distribution list for Multics project periodic reports and bulletins. When you move to Yale, do you wish that this stream of material follow you? Or should I redirect it to someone else at Carnegie? Or should I cut it off? Since the stream was initiated to keep contact among ARPA contractees, I would guess that alternative two is most appropriate. On the other hand, if nobody will look at the stuff, alternative three is preferable. In any case, I will not continue the stream until I hear from you.

Send it to A. Newell at CMU.

I wish you good luck in your new environment.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Professor Newell:

For the past several years, we have been sending periodic bulletins and memos of the Multics project to Alan Perlis, as a method of maintaining contact among ARPA contractors. He has suggested that if we continue this stream of information, it be redirected to you after he leaves C.M.U. Do you wish to receive this information? If so, please provide me with a current mailing address.

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
