

The letter would go to the following list of users who are present recipients of the SPS:

W. Nissen	(Technical Information Project)
W. Matthews	(Technical Information Project)
R. Mabee	(ProgLing)
A. Evans	(ProgLing)
J. Donovan
J. Dennis
M. Jones
R. Goldstein	(MACAIMS)
J. Klensin	(Cambridge Project)

Doug Wells (MACAIMS)

I would propose also to send the same letter to twelve of our outside recipients, leaving only R. M. Graham and E. I. Organick as recipients of the SPS:

F. Westervelt	(University of Michigan)
A. Perlis	(Carnegie)
R. Fredrickson	(Stanford)
M. Greenberger	(Johns Hopkins)
E. Glaser	(Case Western)
R. Bisbey	(Rand)

SWS / SPS Copy Distribution List

-2-

P. Neumann	(Berkeley)
J. Ossanna	(BTL)
D. Johnson	(NSA)
R. Iuorno	(ROME)
N. Adleman	(SDC)
R. Daley	(RCA)

We should review with IPC whether 55 complete copies of the SPS are really needed there. The distribution list for the SPS would end up as follows:

CSR staff, faculty, and MultImp students	23
IPC staff at MAC	5
Honeywell staff at MAC	4
Project MAC document room	1
R. J. Harmon	1
Operations and Field Engineering	2
Honeywell	50
IPC	55
E. I. Organick	1
R. M. Graham	1
	<hr/>
	143 copies