How I remember London
What my camera saw
How I remember Barbados
What my camera saw
Printing photos used to be hard
Now with computers, it is a lot easier.
Now with computers, it is a lot easier.
But it is still hard...
Now with computers, it is a lot easier. But it is still hard... It does not have to be this way.
Many images can become great after retouching.

It does not have to be hard.
First Things First
Make this Photo Look like a Postcard
5000 photos

5 trained photographers

1+ year of research
Same Instructions
Different Interpretations
“input photo”

photographer A

photographer B

photographer C

photographer D

photographer E

Same Instructions
Different Interpretations
Brightness & Contrast

95%
Under the Hood

input photo
Under the Hood

input photo
Under the Hood

our result
Our version
Our version
Wait! We can do more...
Naïve processing
Our result with exaggerated details
Our result
Now, Let’s Add Some Style

Make this photo look like this one
Our result
Our result
Our result
Last but not Least

Make it Look like Another Time of Day
Our result
Under the Hood

400+ time-lapse videos
Our result (golden hour)
From a single input photo
Acknowledgements

Nothing would have been possible without great research collaborators: Mathieu Aubry, Bill Freeman, Vladimir Bychkovsky, Frédo Durand, Sam Hasinoff, Jan Kautz, and YiChang Shih and great product teams: Phaneendra Angara, Eric Chan, Jeff Chien, Scott Daniel, Bob Gager, Subramanian Ganapathy, Ganesh Grandi, Mohit Gupta, and Dipanjan Sengupta

Merci