Overview

- What is image popularity?
- Predict popularity using image content?
- How does this compare to social factors?
- What makes an image popular?
- Conclusions and future work

Conclusion

- Image popularity can be predicted to a reasonable extent using content alone!
- Both image content and social cues are important for popularity prediction
- Content/social cues help to a different degree in different contexts
- We identify some factors that make an image popular

Future work

- Predicting other notions of popularity
e.g. shareability, likeability, comments
- Temporal evolution of popularity
- Effect of high-level attributes such as emotions
- Automatically modifying image popularity
