

WW1

[1.] An intrepid traveler would traverse the Nil on a small craft, while a tourist would go on a cruise.

[1.] I am an aficionado of Proust's masterpiece, "In Search of Lost Time".

[1.] In a cosmopolitan society, people tend to cluster by cultural regions.

[1.] I knew a person so gauche that he systematically jostled his girlfriend to go through the door before her, like a perfect negative of a gentleman.

[1.] A person might show disdain by laughing at a solemn declaration.

[1.] A novice at driving might forget to give way to the vehicles on his right.

[1.] In my candid opinion, "Hershey's Chocolate" is not chocolate.

[1.] Only a gullible person would believe that "non-fat" ice cream is non-fattening.

[1.] One custom alien to me is to classify people by race.

[1.] I hope one day to be affluent enough to prove to others that it is not worth it.

Nada Amin

February 25, 2002

21F.222 – WW1

namin@mit.edu

[1.]