

WW2

- [1.] In Third World countries, typically more people work in primary and secondary sectors.
- [1.] My career will thrive when my work will improve some people's life.
- [1.] One thing I find ludicrous is the belief that prohibitive laws do more than sweep the issues under the carpet.
- [1.] One ominous trend in society is the apathy of citizens about issues that do not affect their buying power.
- [1.] A bureaucracy is a dirty soap.
- [1.] I would like to supplant required courses with electives.
- [1.] The media in the United States all whistle the same tune.
- [1.] I would favor a radical change in scientific publications.
- [1.] I am in accord with the President on cheering the Texas Rangers.
- [1.] I cannot apprehend how the Market functions.

Nada Amin

February 25, 2002

21F.222 – WW2

namin@mit.edu

[1.]