
- Team Setup
  - Each team must choose a name
  - Each team must choose a captain to relay all the answers.
- Board Setup
  - There is Single Jeopardy, Double Jeopardy and Final Jeopardy.
  - Each category has four answers with different point values.
- Play
  - The team with control of the board chooses a box
  - The answer is read, and the team whose captain first raises his/her hand is given a chance to question the answer.
  - If the question is right, the team gains points equal to the value of the box, and they get control of the board.
  - If the answer is wrong, the team loses points equal to the value of the box, and the next team is called upon.
  - Daily Double: The team who is in control must choose how many points to risk, and then gets a chance to answer the question.
  - Final Jeopardy: The category is revealed and each team bids points up to their score. The answer is revealed, and each team has a minute to determine the question.
- Judges
  - The rule of the judges (Sandia and Mike) is final
  - The judges determine how much time is allowed to answer each question, and when each round is over.
